

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME : SALIBA MOUIN SAYEGH
DATE OF BIRTH : OCTOBER 24, 1966
NATIONALITY : LEBANESE
LANGUAGES : ARABIC, ENGLISH, FRENCH
PASSPORT NO. : RL 3414422
QUALIFICATIONS : BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING
MAJOR IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING
1984-1988
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF BEIRUT

WORK EXPERIENCE:

A. DATE : JULY 2015- Up to date
COMPANY : Solution Power Partner – Jbeil, Lebanon
POSITION : Projects Manager/Plant Manager
PROJECT DESCRIPTION : Diesel Power Plant 45 MW – Basra, Iraq
JOB DESCRIPTION : Project management for the Engineering, Procurement, construction and commissioning activities related to diesel/HFO/Gas power generation plants. Managing all day to day project activities including planning, cost control, document control and contracts administration. Plant Manager for Naameh Landfill Power Plant. In charge of all Operation & Maintenance activities of a 7MW landfill gas power plant.

- B.
- |                     |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DATE                | : | APRIL 2011- February 2012                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| COMPANY             | : | Petrofac – El Merk, Algeria                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| POSITION            | : | Sr. Construction Manager (E&I)                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| PROJECT DESCRIPTION | : | El Merk Central Processing Facilities                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| JOB DESCRIPTION     | : | Manage E&I construction activities for a 2.2 Billion $ oil project including the management of multiple subcontractors. Subcontracts award, material procurement, planning, progress monitoring, contractual correspondence. |
- C.
- |                     |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|---------------------|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DATE                | : | May 2008- March 2011 & March 2012- June 2015                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| COMPANY             | : | Bemco – Beirut, Lebanon                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| POSITION            | : | Project Controls Manager/Sub Contracts Manager                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| PROJECT DESCRIPTION | : | Qurayat Power Plant                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| JOB DESCRIPTION     | : | Project management for the Engineering and Procurement activities related to combined cycle power generation plants. Managing the Project Controls Department including planning, cost control, document control, contracts administration and claims of all company projects. Sub Contracts award for the project packages (mechanical, E&I, painting & insulation, chemical cleaning & steam blowing, performance test....) for all Bemco projects. |

D.	DATE	:	July 2007- February 2008
	COMPANY	:	Consolidated Contractors International Co. Qatar
	POSITION	:	Construction Manager (E&I)
	PROJECT DESCRIPTION	:	Pearl GTL Project-Ras Laffan
	JOB DESCRIPTION	:	Managing all activities related to the E&I department. Contract value US$1000 million, E&I works value US$ 90 million. Contract documents review, manpower mobilization, procurement of material, subcontracts award and all daily E&I activities.

E.	DATE	:	June 2005- June 2007
	COMPANY	:	Consolidated Contractors International Co. Bahrain
	POSITION	:	Construction Manager (E&I)
	PROJECT DESCRIPTION	:	LSDP Project- Bahrain
	JOB DESCRIPTION	:	Managing all activities related to the E&I department. Contract value US$120 million, E&I works value US$ 15 million. Contract documents review, manpower mobilization, procurement of material, subcontracts award and all daily E&I activities.

H.

DATE	:	November 1998- December 2001
COMPANY	:	Consolidated Contractors International Co. Beirut- Lebanon
POSITION	:	Senior Contract Administrator (E & M)
PROJECT DESCRIPTION	:	Construction of Beirut International Airport for a contract price of US $ 386 million. The works consisted of the construction of a new runway, terminal building, control tower and associated support buildings and infrastructure.
JOB DESCRIPTION	:	Contract Administration for Electro-Mechanical activities including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Daily contractual issues</li> <li>- Contractual correspondence</li> <li>- Identification of variations</li> <li>- Valuation of variations</li> <li>- Final measurement</li> <li>- Initiation and drafting of claims</li> <li>- Back-up and coordination for arbitration</li> </ul>

I.

DATE	:	June 1997- October 1998
COMPANY	:	Consolidated Contractors International Co. Beirut- Lebanon
POSITION	:	Project Engineer (E & I)
PROJECT DESCRIPTION	:	Erection, testing, and pre-commissioning of the 2 nd Production Line (2400 t/d) at Sibline Cement Factory- Lebanon which includes 66KV/6.3 KV Substation, 6.3KV/380 V Substations (9 Nos.), Central Control Room (DCS and PLC) and Field Instruments.
JOB DESCRIPTION	:	Coordination with the client, procurement and planning as well as leading a team of two engineers (electrical and instrumentation) and 350 men for the execution of all site activities including testing and pre-commissioning of electrical and instrumentation works.

N.	DATE	:	April 1991- July 1992
	COMPANY	:	Pivot Engineering and General Contracting Co. P.O. Box 7659, Abu-Dhabi, U.A.E.
	POSITION	:	Site Engineer (E & I)
	PROJECT DESCRIPTION		Erection, testing, and commissioning of a Water Pumping Station in Shahama which includes 11 KV/ 6.6 KV/ 415 V Substation, Chlorination System, Control System (Hardwired), Field Instruments and Control Elements.
	JOB DESCRIPTION	:	Shop drawings, material take-off, all site activities including testing and commissioning of water pumping station.

O.	DATE	:	June 1990- March 1991
	COMPANY	:	Hadi Barakat Trading and Contracting Est. P.O. Box 6303, Abu-Dhabi, U.A.E.
	POSITION	:	Electro-Mechanical Site Engineer
	PROJECT DESCRIPTION	:	a) Erection, testing, and commissioning of a Reverse Osmosis Desalination Plant in Jebel Dhana (2 Million Gallons per Day) which includes 1 1KV/ 415 V Substation, PLC Control System, Field Instruments and Control Elements.  b) Erection, testing, and commissioning of a Reverse Osmosis Desalination Plant in Sila (250,000 Gallons per Day) same as above.
	JOB DESCRIPTION	:	Material take-off, all site activities including testing and commissioning of Electrical and Instrumentation works in R.O. Plants (a) and (b).

